

COVID-19 Update – Vulnerable and Critical Workers

Tuesday 5th January 2021

Dear Parents

Following the announcement yesterday, school will move to online learning for the majority of our children. We understand that these are uncertain times and everyone is feeling anxious about the situation.

Information is coming in from the government and Wiltshire Council and we are adapting our plans accordingly. Please ensure you read all emails carefully, respond where appropriate and be patient with us!

Some children are eligible to attend school in the coming weeks. These children are those who are vulnerable or are children of Critical workers. For more information see below or visit <https://www.gov.uk - critical workers and vulnerable children guidance>

Vulnerable children and young people include those who:

- are assessed as being in need under section 17 of the Children Act 1989, including children and young people who have a child in need plan, a child protection plan or who are a looked-after child
- have an education, health and care (EHC) plan
- have been identified as otherwise vulnerable by educational providers or local authorities (including children's social care services), and who could therefore benefit from continued full-time attendance, this might include:
- children and young people on the edge of receiving support from children's social care services or in the process of being referred to children's services
- adopted children or children on a special guardianship order
- those at risk of becoming NEET ('not in employment, education or training')
- those living in temporary accommodation
- those who are young carers
- those who may have difficulty engaging with remote education at home (for example due to a lack of devices or quiet space to study)
- care leavers
- others at the provider and local authority's discretion including pupils and students who need to attend to receive support or manage risks to their mental health

Critical Workers

Parents whose work is critical to the coronavirus (COVID-19) and EU transition response include those who work in health and social care and in other key sectors outlined in the following sections.

Health and social care

This includes, but is not limited to, doctors, nurses, midwives, paramedics, social workers, care workers, and other frontline health and social care staff including volunteers; the support and specialist staff required to maintain the UK's health and social care sector; those working as part of the health and social care supply chain, including producers and distributors of medicines and medical and personal protective equipment.

Education and childcare

Childcare, support and teaching staff, social workers, specialist education professionals who must remain active during the coronavirus (COVID-19) response to deliver this approach

Key public services

Those essential to the running of the justice system, religious staff, charities and workers delivering key frontline services, those responsible for the management of the deceased, journalists and broadcasters who are providing public service broadcasting, Local and national government

This only includes those administrative occupations essential to the effective delivery of: the coronavirus (COVID-19) response, and the delivery of and response to EU transition, essential public services, such as the payment of benefits and the certification or checking of goods for import and export (including animal products, animals, plants and food), including in government agencies and arms length bodies

Food and other necessary goods

This includes those involved in food:

Production, processing, distribution, sale and delivery, as well as those essential to the provision of other key goods (for example hygienic and veterinary medicines)

Public safety and national security

This includes:

Police and support staff, Ministry of Defence civilians, contractor and armed forces personnel (those critical to the delivery of key Defence and national security outputs and essential to the response to the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak and EU transition), fire and rescue service employees (including support staff)

National Crime Agency staff

Those maintaining border security, prison and probation staff and other national security roles, including those overseas, Transport and border

This includes those who will keep the air, water, road and rail passenger and freight transport modes operating during the coronavirus (COVID-19) response and EU transition, including those working on transport systems through which supply chains pass and those constructing or supporting the operation of critical transport and border infrastructure through which supply chains pass.

Utilities, communication and financial services

This includes:

Staff needed for essential financial services provision (including but not limited to workers in banks, building societies and financial market infrastructure), the oil, gas, electricity and water sectors (including sewerage), information technology and data infrastructure sector and primary industry supplies to continue during the coronavirus (COVID-19) response, key staff working in the civil nuclear, chemicals, telecommunications (including but not limited to network operations, field engineering, call centre staff, IT and data infrastructure, 999 and 111 critical services), postal services and delivery, payments providers, waste disposal sectors

Please complete this form to identify where parent(s) fall into the categories highlighted, or contact Ruthie in the office by 1.30pm TODAY.

We need to have this information as soon as possible.

Child's name:		Parent 1	Parent 2	Do you require?
				Breakfast Club	After School Club
Vulnerable Child/ren	YES / NO
Health and Social Care
Education and childcare
Key Public Services
Local and national government
Food and other necessary goods
Public safety and national security
Transport and border
Utilities, communication and financial services
Parents company information
Parent 1:
Parent 2:
We/I require our/my child/ren to attend school during the closure.		Yes	No

Please bear with us through these challenging times and be assured that we are doing our very best to respond to this rapidly evolving situation in the interests of everyone in our school community.

Kindest regards

Emma Russell
Headteacher